1. Fall/Winter Early Childhood Development and Literacy Workshops - UNH Institute on Disability - Professional Development Center, 56 Old Suncook Road, Concord - all workshops $65.00. Sponsored by the National Center on Inclusive Education, three different workshops on Literacy and Social Emotional Development, Literacy Interventions and Child Development are offered at various dates and times. For more information, call (603) 228-2084. To register, go to www.iod.unh.edu/events.

2. Young Athletes Looking for Volunteers - Epping and Concord sites are looking for one day/week - The Young Athletes Program, sponsored by Special Olympics New Hampshire, has programs ready to go - but they need volunteers to assist with the program one day a week. Epping needs help Saturdays from 9 - 10 am. Contact Heidi Langlais at Hlanglais@sau14.org for more information. Concord needs help Sundays from 3 - 4 pm. Contact Bill Jones at BillJ@sonh.org for more information.

3. Child Care Aware of New Hampshire - a new name for Child Care Resource and Referral Agencies in America - In March 2012, our national association, the National Association of Child Care Resource & Referral Agencies (NACCRRA), officially changed its name to Child Care Aware of America®. This change is part of a national effort to create a strong, recognizable, national brand that anyone, anywhere will associate with quality child care expertise. The New Hampshire Child Care Resource and Referral (NHCCR&R) Network has now officially changed our name to Child Care Aware® of New Hampshire.
